

One Size Doesn't Fit All: Safe Care of the Very Large Patient April 6, 2010 – Doubletree Hotel Portland, Oregon

Agenda

- 7:30 Registration opens – Continental Breakfast, Poster Session and Exhibits available
- 8:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks
- 8:15 Keynote presentation – Weight, weight bias, and obesity: the challenge of obesity in the healthcare system
Keith Bachman, MD (Kaiser Permanente, Portland)
- 9:15 Care of the Oversize Patient: The Top 10 Challenges
Connie Kirkpatrick, PhD, MS, RN (Good Samaritan Hospital, Puyallup, WA)
- 10:15 Break for Coffee, Networking, Poster Session and Exhibits
- 10:45 Safe Care of the Obese Surgical Patient
Clifford Deveney, MD (Oregon Health and Science University, Portland)
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Staying Safe, Part I: Preventing injury to staff
Lynda Enos, RN, MS, Ergonomist/Nursing Practice Consultant (Oregon Nurses Assoc.)
- 2:00 Maintaining skin integrity across care settings
Sunniva Zaratkiewicz, BSN, RN, CWCN, Wound Care Clinical Nurse Educator
(Harborview Medical Center, Seattle)
- 3:00 Break for Coffee, Networking, Poster Session and Exhibits
- 3:15 Staying Safe, Part II: Ensuring a safe physical environment for our patients
Maureen Murphy, RN (Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center, Corvallis, OR), and Lynda Enos, RN, MS (Oregon Nurses Association)
- 4:15 Panel Discussion – Optimizing care transitions in the community
Vicki Jacovec, ACNP (Oregon Health and Science University, Portland), Faith Stuck, RN (Sheridan Care Center), and Barbara Wood, RN, MBA (Group Health Cooperative)
- 5:00 Adjourn