

One Size Doesn't Fit All: Safe Care of the Very Large Patient

October 21, 2010 – Mukogawa Fort Wright Institute, Spokane, Washington

Agenda

- 7:30 Registration opens – Continental Breakfast
- 8:15 Welcome and Opening Remarks
Miriam Marcus-Smith, RN, MHA, Program Director, WA Patient Safety Coalition
- 8:30 Care of the Oversize Patient: The Top 10 Challenges
Connie Kirkpatrick, PhD, MS, RN (Good Samaritan Hospital, Puyallup, WA)
- 9:15 Keynote presentation – Weight, Weight Bias, and Obesity: the challenge of obesity in the healthcare system
Keith Bachman, MD, FACP (Kaiser Permanente, Portland, OR)
- 10:30 Break for Coffee and Networking and Vendors
- 10:45 Safe Care of the Obese Surgical Patient
E. Patchen Dellinger, MD (University of Washington Medical Center, Seattle)
- 12:00 Lunch Buffet
- 1:00 Staying Safe, Part I: Preventing injury to staff
Lynda Enos, RN, MS, Ergonomist/Nursing Practice Consultant (Oregon Nurses Assoc.)
- 2:30 Break for Coffee and Networking and Vendors
- 2:45 Staying Safe, Part II: Ensuring a safe physical environment for our patients
Erin Kelly Couch, AIA (Clark/Kjos Architects, Portland, OR)
- 3:45 Break for Coffee and Networking and Vendors
- 4:00 Maintaining skin integrity across care settings
Terri Callan, RN, BSN (Sacred Heart Medical Center & Holy Family Hospital, Spokane)
- 5:00 Adjourn